

Get Your Medicare Questions Answered

Do you have questions about your Medicare coverage? 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) can help. TTY users can call 1-877-486-2048.

What should I have ready when I call 1-800-MEDICARE?

- Speak clearly and follow the voice system prompts to pick the category that best meets your needs.
- Have your Medicare card in front of you, and be ready to give your Medicare number.
- When asked for your Medicare number, speak the numbers clearly one at a time. Or, you can enter your Medicare number on the phone keypad. The system will then ask you to speak any letters in your Medicare number.

How can someone call 1-800-MEDICARE for me?

Medicare won't share your personal health information with others unless you give permission. You can either give verbal permission over the phone for the customer service representative to speak with someone else on your behalf, or fill out an authorization form in advance.

You can fill out the "Medicare Authorization to Disclose Personal Health Information form" online by visiting Medicare.gov/MedicareOnlineForms/AuthorizationForm/OnlineFormStep.asp. Or you can download, fill out, print, and sign the form from Medicare.gov/medicareonlineforms/publicforms/cms10106.pdf, then mail it to:

Medicare CCO
Written Authorization Dept.
P.O. Box 1270
Lawrence, KS 66044

If you submit the form by mail, it generally takes a few weeks before permission is in place for someone to speak on your behalf.

You can call 1-800-MEDICARE for help filling out the form.

How do I call 1-800-MEDICARE about a claim?

Before you speak with a customer service representative, you should have this information available:

- Your Medicare Summary Notice (MSN), if available
- The doctor or provider's name
- The date you got the service or supply
- The type of service or supply you got
- Any amount that you already paid

Get help with your rights & protections

With Medicare, you have special rights and protections. There are resources available to you to make sure your rights are protected, including:

- The Medicare Beneficiary Ombudsman
- The Competitive Acquisition Ombudsman (CAO)
- Your State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP)
- The Beneficiary and Family Centered Care Quality Improvement Organization (BFCC-QIO)
- State Survey Agency

Medicare Beneficiary Ombudsman

The Medicare Beneficiary Ombudsman helps you with Medicare-related complaints, grievances, and information requests. The Medicare Beneficiary Ombudsman makes sure information is available about:

- What you need to know to make health care decisions that are right for you
- Your Medicare rights and protections
- How you can get issues resolved

The Medicare Beneficiary Ombudsman also shares information with the Secretary of Health and Human Services, Congress, and other organizations about what does and doesn't work well to improve the quality of the services and care you get through Medicare.

If you've contacted 1-800-MEDICARE about a Medicare-related inquiry or complaint but still need help, ask the 1-800-MEDICARE representative to send your inquiry or complaint to the Medicare Ombudsman's Office. The Medicare Ombudsman's Office helps make sure that your inquiry or complaint is resolved.

The Competitive Acquisition Ombudsman (CAO)

The CAO helps review and resolve complaints about durable medical equipment from people with Medicare and suppliers in Competitive Bidding Areas. The CAO responds to individual and supplier inquiries, issues, and complaints, and helps make sure that your complaint is resolved.

If you still need help after contacting your supplier and 1-800 MEDICARE, ask the 1-800-MEDICARE representative to send your inquiry or complaint to the CAO. The CAO helps make sure that your inquiry or complaint is resolved.

State Health Insurance Assistant Program (SHIP)

SHIPs offer local, personalized counseling and assistance to people with Medicare and their families.

SHIPs provide free information and counseling to help you with:

- Your Medicare questions, including your benefits, coverage, premiums, deductibles, and coinsurance
- Complaints (grievances)
- Appeals
- Joining or leaving a Medicare Advantage Plan (like an HMO or PPO), any other Medicare health plan, or Medicare Prescription Drug Plan (Part D).

For more information, call your SHIP in your state. You can visit shiptacenter.org to get the phone number, or call 1-800-MEDICARE.

Beneficiary and Family Centered Care Quality Improvement Organization (BFCC-QIO)

The BFCC-QIOs review complaints and quality of care for people with Medicare to improve the effectiveness, efficiency, economy, and quality of services delivered to people with Medicare.

BFCC-QIOs provide services to help you with:

- Filing appeals in hospital and non-hospital settings if you think your coverage is ending too soon
- Complaints (grievances)
- Quality of care reviews
- Medical necessity reviews

For more information or help, visit Medicare.gov/contacts to get the phone number for your BFCC-QIO.

The State Survey Agency

State Survey Agencies oversee health care facilities that participate in Medicare and/or Medicaid. The State Survey Agency inspects health care facilities and investigates complaints to ensure that health and safety standards are met. If you have a complaint about improper care or unsafe conditions in a hospital, home health agency, hospice, or nursing home, or you're concerned about the health care, treatment, or services that you or another person got or didn't get in a health care setting, you can contact your State Survey Agency.

You can contact the State Survey Agency if you have concerns about things like:

- Abuse
- Neglect
- Mistreatment
- Poor care
- Not enough staff
- Unsafe or unsanitary conditions
- Dietary problems

To find the contact information for your State Survey Agency, visit www.CMS.gov/medicare/provider-enrollment-and-certification/surveycertificationgeninfo/downloads/state_agency_contacts.pdf.

You have the right to get Medicare information in an accessible format. You also have the right to file a complaint if you feel you've been discriminated against. Visit CMS.gov/about-cms/agency-information/aboutwebsite/cmsnondiscriminationnotice.html, or call 1-800-MEDICARE for more information.
